About this guide

This Financial Services Guide (FSG) is designed to assist you make an informed decision about the financial services we* provide to our clients.

It contains information about who we are; the financial services we offer; how we are remunerated; any potential conflicts we may have; and how concerns or complaints are addressed.

This FSG has been given to you by your adviser with the authority of DB5 Advisers Pty Ltd, AFSL: 543 198.

 In this document 'we' refers to DB Advisers and your Financial Adviser.*

Other documents you may receive

If you agree to use our services, our initial advice to you will be documented in a plan called a 'Statement of Advice' which details the advice given to you, why we believe that it is appropriate, any disadvantages of our advice, exact details of any remuneration that we receive as a result of the advice and if replacement of an existing financial product is recommended, any consequences from that replacement.

If your circumstances have not changed significantly and we provide further advice to you, in addition to your Statement of Advice, we can provide a 'Record of Advice' upon your request at any time up to 7 years from the date we gave you the further advice. You can request a record of the advice by contacting our office.

If, as part of our advice, we recommend a financial product (other than shares), we will provide you with the relevant Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) for each product which discloses who the product provider is, the features of the product, costs associated with it, and risks of investing.

Who we are

As a client of DB Advisers, you may be serviced by one or more of our advisers as our range of advisers have different abilities, specialisations, qualifications and experience.

Your lead adviser who you first deal with at DB Advisers may introduce you to other advisers where they may be more appropriate for the advice task or ongoing service required. You will find details of your adviser in the attached Adviser Profile.

You may instruct your adviser to action your requests in person, by phone or email using the contact details in the adviser profile. But in all cases, we require written confirmation of these instructions.
